Last summer, I visited Toronto on holiday. While I was there, I spent an entire day exploring the St. Lawrence Market. 1) _____. After visiting, I completely agree with the article as it was the best market I had ever visited.

The St. Lawrence Market is filled with 120 stalls selling fruits and vegetables, cheeses, meats and all kinds of specialty foods. You can walk around and talk with the people who actually produce the food. 2) _____. There are also many restaurants and bakeries where you can eat, and one bakery even makes their very popular bagels on the spot.

However, there is much more to the St. Lawrence Market than just food. 3) _____. There is also an art gallery space on the second floor. On Sundays there is a big antiques market. 4) _____. Hopefully, if I ever get a chance to visit Toronto again, I will be able to see it as well. If you are ever in Toronto, the St. Lawrence Market is definitely worth a visit.

- A It's great to see how much they care about the quality of their products.
- B But I didn't get to see it because I went on a Saturday.
- C A magazine article recently named it the best food market in the world.
- D My favourite was the delicious fish and chips.
- E A few vendors also sell handmade jewellery and clothes.
