Dear Emma,

I would like your advice on what to do this summer. I've a full-time job lined up for three weeks in June and then I'll be on holiday for two weeks. After that though, I've no plans. I know you work for an environmental agency, and I definitely want to do something like that, but I really can't think of what. I'd be happy to plant trees or pick up rubbish, or help in any way I can, really. What kind of options are there? Looking forward to your reply.

Your cousin,
Gary

Dear Theo,

I hope you are having a great time. I want to ask you about your experience of working at the animal shelter last summer. I'm thinking of volunteering some place that either looks after animals or elderly people. I'll be working part-time as well, so money won't be a problem. Let me know when you get back from holiday so I can pick your brain about it.

Thanks a mil,
Michael

Both t

- A applying for a job.
- B choosing a charity to work for.
- C saving money for a holiday.

Special Chefs

Le Biscuit Bistro is seeking a part-time trainee/assistant pastry chef for our early-bird and evening dessert menu. We at Le Biscuit Bistro pride ourselves on offering a wide variety of authentic traditional French pastries and desserts. While no experience is necessary, the ideal candidate should have a passion for food and an interest in starting a career as a chef. This is a great opportunity that could lead to a full-time career, so you will have to be able to commit enough time over evenings and weekends to complete the required training. Please send your CV with a letter of application to elodie@lbb.co.uk

This text is ...

- A a job application.
- B a restaurant menu.
- C a job advertisement.

Careers Day

Friday, 15 June is our annual International Careers Day. This year more than 30 local businesses will be represented at information stalls in the assembly hall, where students can ask questions about different career options.

Note: The stalls are for information purposes only, please do not give out your CV or apply for any position directly.

At 3pm there will be a talk by a local business owner. The school café will serve drinks and snacks throughout the day.

What can't you do on Careers Day?

- A give out your handout
- B buy drinks
- C ask questions
